

What's New At Heirlooms?

In last months newsletter it was advised that a blog-type page had been added to the website. I made an error with directions of how to locate the page. There are two options - either from the Home Page by clicking on The Barberry Blog (written in red near the bottom of the page) or by going directly to the page (this is now the correct page) - www.barberryrow.com/blog/blog.html. A few more postings since that last newsletter - Mothers Day in Blog #5 and news of my puppy and my latest stitching projects in Blog #6. As for Facebook - well, I've done it - but I'm still struggling with how this works. My poor granddaughter, Ashleigh (my tutor) is almost in despair! However, if you would like to become a "friend" - Sherelyn Whiteman - please send me a request.

Designs: Sadly, Judy of JBW Designs was not able to be at the Nashville Trade Show this year due to it being held a couple of weeks later than usual. Judy had made other arrangements for this time of year (not knowing that TNNA would change their usual dates) and therefore was committed to these. She was so disappointed, as she had not missed a show for 18 years! However, her new designs were on display and these are -

JBW 271 - Alphabet Hearts: The third design in her new Stitch-A-Long series. As its title suggests - alphabet letters and hearts of all different styles and sizes, all worked in varying shades of rose pink and greens. $18.50

JBW 272 - Alphabet Cats: Two little cats - a momma and a kitty, each shape being created by Judy's clever use of letters of the alphabet. Finish as hanging ornaments as per the models with silver pussy cat charms hanging from the bottom of each piece or frame the pieces separately or stitch both together and frame as one. $10.00

School House Red) $5.50 per skein

JBW 274 - French Country ~ Poodle: This little poodle shape has been created with Judy's clever use of lovely little motifs of hearts, birds, bows, trees, etc. $10.00

JBW 275 - French Country ~ Umbrella: Another of Judy's distinctive designs - that is, the object shape being created with motif shapes - hearts, flowers, a basket, a bird, a bow, etc. $10.00

JBW 276 - Home At Last: A reprint of an old favourite design now 'out-of-print'. Re-charted with a fresh look due to the use of brighter colours - mauves, indigo blues, mossy greens, etc. $10.00

NOTE: In stock are a few of the original design - JBW 065 : Homeward Bound. $10.00
There is a model of this design hanging on the wall in the Needlework Gallery.

Kit: Restocked on a very popular kit from The Sweetheart Tree -

SWT:SE 023 - Lady Dunmore's Sampler: A beautiful sampler with lots of stitches - Cross Stitch, Square Eyelets, Couched Coils, Scotch Stitch, Rhodes Heart, Diagonal Oblique Herringbone, Satin Stitch, Diamond Eyelet, Backstitch, and more - all worked on a 28 count Light Mocha Cashel Linen with rose, cream, olive green shades of DMC stranded cottons, a silk overdyed thread, and a silver metallic thread. This is then embellished with silver paillettes, and dark iris, old rose and silver beads. Just glorious! $79.50

Book: For those of you who have been stitching for a very long time, you will know the name, Paula Vaughan, very well. This wonderful, talented artist has had most of her paintings featuring beautiful handmade quilts, dainty pink roses, quaint front porches, Victorian-styled dresses and antique china, converted into needlework charts.

Over 29 projects are in the following book -

LA3084 - At Home With Paula Vaughan $64.50

Magazines: Do you recognise these two issues?

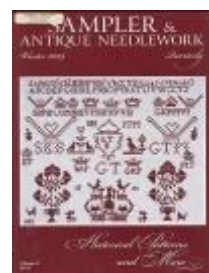

I have a customer who has loaned these two issues and they have not been returned to her. She would like to replace these issues so as to complete her collection.

Can you help by selling your copy if you no longer need it? If so, please contact me, so that I can pass it/them on to her and payment to you.
Sincere thanks.
